SIXTH DISTRICT NAMES OFFICERS

Returns of Delegates Received From Garden Isle.

PORTUGUESE ARE TO CALL ON REPUBLICANS

WANT REPRESENTATION ON THE TICKET—WILL NOT APPROACH
DEMOCRATS OR HOME RU-LERS—CONVENTION.

With the exception of the Third, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth precincts, returns of the Republican primaries have come from Kaula (Sixth District), these having been sent down in the W. G. Hall yesterday. They are as follows:

Second Precinct (Kekaha).—Eric A. Knudsen for Territorial Convention. No returns for District Committee.

Seventh Precinct (Keala).—T. P. Sanborn for Territorial Convention. Prince L. Tople for District Committee.

Eighth Precinct (Kilauea).—Isaac M. Cox for both Territorial Convention and District Committee.

Ninth Precinct (Hanalei).—Wm. Werner for both Territorial Convention and District Committee.

On Friday, the various delegates to the Sixth District met at Lihue, organized and elected its officers. The result of the election was as follows:

Chairman—John H. Coney of Lihue. Vice-Chairman—Prince L. Tople of Keala.

Secretary—M. Rosenblydt of Waimea. Treasurer—C. A. Rice of Lihue.

Executive Committee—Whole District Committee with the exception of E. Lovell.

It might be explained in this connection that Lihue is the only precinct with more than one member of the District Committee. Two of the four members are officers and therefore members of the executive committee anyway. There being two left to choose from (this on the basis of one man from each precinct), a vote was taken and E. Lovell was left out.

Whereas, a few weeks ago, the Republican party seemed to be at the end of a candidate to run for the office of Delegate to Washington, there now appear to be so many candidates in the field that it becomes now a question of elimination and the survival of the fittest.

From the present indications Judge A. N. Kepoikai holds all the trump cards in the Maui game and the delegation from that island, made up largely of native Hawaiians, will undoubtedly be a unit in their advocacy of Kepoikai.

It has been contended by many that Kepoikai would not be supported by the Hawaiians because of his closeness to the so-called "missionary" element of the Republican party. The natives of Maui laugh at this and give as their answer that Kepoikai, although strenuously urged during the unpleasantness of 1893 to forewear allegiance to the monarchy, refused to do so and forfeited his judgeship as a result.

Kepoikai is known to be a close friend of Senator H. P. Baldwin and this is pointed out by the former's detractors as another reason why he should not receive the support of Hawaiians. As a matter of fact, there is no more popular man among the Hawaiians of Maui than Hon. H. P. Baldwin who is known from one end of the island to the other as a square dealing, just and upright man. Any political position he wishes at the hands of Maui Hawaiians he can secure without even turning over his hand.

Representative A. G. M. Robertson seems to be the choice of the Oahu delegates to the Territorial Convention and yet there are some who are mentioning the names of Curtis P. Iauke and others.

With the advent of the Portuguese Political Club in Honolulu comes the introduction into the politics of the Territory of a factor that must be reckoned with in the oncoming campaign and one which in the coming years will surely grow to such proportions as to make affiliation with any party whatever a much to be desired consummation.

The Portuguese are working quietly, yet they are accomplishing a great deal. They are doing everything possible to cement their people together, recognizing to the full that "in union there is strength."

A convention is soon to be called and at that time, a representative of the Portuguese will be chosen to run

KAKAOKO LETS LOOSE

PRIMO SALOONS CLOSE,
SWIPES BEGIN INSTANTLY

SLEUM DISTRICT DEPRIVED OF
CHEAP BEER REVERTS IMMEDIATELY TO ITS FORMER FAVORITE DRINK.

If any of the worthy gentlemen who managed to get the Primo beer saloons closed had been in the Police Court this morning, the sight of the drunks in the dock would have furnished them with some food for reflection.

The dock was filled with twenty drunks of several types and nationalities and they all exhibited the same species of "razz," namely, swipes. They practically all came from Kakaoko and furnished a striking illustration of just in what manner the closing of the Primo saloons has promoted the temperance cause.

Recently four saloons in Kakaoko, namely, the Villa Nova, the Wela Ka Hao, the Germania and the Aloha, were closed. These saloons were selling beer and it is clearly shown by police statistics that as long as these saloons were doing business in Kakaoko, which district was before their arrival a hotbed of swipes fostered and okeohao nourished crime and licentiousness, that part of town reformed to a certain extent. It even became positively decent in comparison to what it had been. The people in the district could get good beer at a price they could afford to pay and consequently the manufacture of swipes, etc., fell off to a very considerable extent.

The direct consequence of this was that even if the inhabitants did not stop going on "spree" they still had been themselves and the police had but little trouble with Kakaoko.

Now the Primo saloons are closed and the effect of the change has been so swift that it has surprised even the police who had been predicting the consequences. Yesterday, Kakaoko, not able to procure beer, instantly reverted to primeval sin and wickedness and the patrol wagon took more "drunks" to the station house from that district than it has done for the past year.

Detective David Kaapa, by whom most of the arrests were made, gives the following description of a Kakaoko idly:

"In a house near the Magoon block the worst 'spree' took place. In a bed in a small room a barrel filled with a vile liquid, called wine by courtesy, reposed. Around it on the bed lay six men, while seven more occupied the floor.

"The barrel was provided with a hose and a young native girl acted as hose dispensing the liquor by passing the end of the hose from one man to the other, each sucking his fill in turn."

The method proved so effective that they all got very drunk and took the medicine of $2 and costs in court this morning.

One young lady, only escaped fine. She was represented by F. M. Brooks who quoted Blackstone, that a person has a right to be drunk in his or her own house, to such effect that the fair damsel escaped. Another young girl, Hattie Manu, however, is charged with disposing of liquor without a license. Her case was continued.

The police high and low are unanimous in deploring the fact that the Primo saloons have been closed and anticipate a lot of trouble from Kakaoko now that the swipes evil is again rampant. Many of the force declare that Primo has been the most effective missionary force Kakaoko ever had and declare that the swipes evil with all its consequences will not be stopped by force good, cheap beer is again sold in the district mentioned.

as a candidate to the Legislature.

In this connection, it might be stated that the Portuguese Political Club expects, at a conservative estimate, to swing three hundred votes at the coming election. With this showing, a committee from the Portuguese will approach the leaders of the Republican party and will present to them a plan for the recognition of the Portuguese element.

This committee will ask for representation on the Republican ticket. If this is refused, the Portuguese, according to their present attitude, will run their candidate on an independent basis, not wishing to affiliate with either the Democratic or Home Rule parties.

There will be a meeting of the Portuguese Political Club this evening in San Antonio hall to complete the plans for the big mass meeting next Sunday afternoon. A convention of all Portuguese-American citizens will be held soon for the purpose of selecting a candidate for the Legislature.

Maui Republicans Want A. N. KEPOIKAI As Delegate To Congress

Waikuku, Aug. 9.—The Republican party of the Third Representative District comprising Maui, Molokai and Lanai, is in full working order now. Organization is complete and great things are expected at the coming elections. The District Committee met yesterday, August 8, in the Waikuku courthouse. Hon. H. P. Baldwin, the chairman of the last District Committee, called the meeting to order at 11 o'clock. Mr. Baldwin was chosen temporary chairman while Geo. Cooper was made secretary pro tem. On motion, the temporary chairman selected Messrs. Howell, Josepa and Kepoikai as committee on credentials and they reported as follows:

1. Kalaupapa—No returns.
2. Pukoo—D. H. Kahauliolo.
3. Philip Pali.

4. Lanai—S. Kahookahala.
5. Honokohau—R. C. Searle.
6. Waikuku—S. E. Kaleikau.
7. Kahului—H. P. Baldwin.
8. Honouliuli—J. H. Raymond.
9. Makawao—Geo. Copp.

10. Hamakua—J. P. Inaina.
11. Kipahulu—J. P. Inaina.
12. Hana—J. K. Josepa, Geo. Cooper and Hugh Howell.
13. Keane—W. F. Pogue.

The credentials of all the above being found in due form were ordered accepted and approved.

It may here be noted that the Kahukoula element at Lanai won their fight at Lanai. Messrs. Philip Pali and S. Kapu being selected to represent that town at the District Committee. There were nearly forty voters at the polls. Mr. McCann's protest has therefore come to naught. W. F. Pogue from Keane was sent over to settle the matter and he has admirably succeeded in his mission, the contending parties having avowed their undying loyalty to the party and its principles. P. N. Kahookouma was defeated by "Greenleaf" Kawehaku in the contest for a seat in the Territorial Convention, and the convention will therefore feel the presence of the delegate-elect when he gets there.

The District Committee then proceeded with permanent organization which resulted in the election of the following officers for the ensuing period: Chairman, W. F. Pogue; vice chairman, Hon. H. P. Baldwin; secretary, Hon. A. N. Kepoikai, and treasurer, W. O. Aiken.

On motion, an executive committee of the District Committee was selected by the chair, one from each precinct, which, together with the chairman, secretary and treasurer, make a body of sixteen, viz.:

1. Kalaupapa—Later.
2. Pukoo—D. H. Kahauliolo.
3. Philip Pali.

4. Lanai—S. Kahookahala.
5. Honokohau—R. C. Searle.
6. Waikuku—S. E. Kaleikau.
7. Kahului—H. P. Baldwin.
8. Honouliuli—J. H. Raymond.
9. Makawao—Geo. Copp.

10. Hamakua—J. P. Inaina.
11. Kipahulu—J. P. Inaina.
12. Hana—J. K. Josepa.
13. Keane—W. F. Pogue.

After the noon hour of the same day, the executive committee of the District Committee was called together for important business. That body decided that in order to find the consensus of opinion of the various precincts as to who shall be the most popular candidates to run on the senatorial and representative ticket of the Republican party at the coming election, to leave the matter to the various precincts in this electoral district, and the way of finding out who these most popular candidates will be by this new and quite novel method.

The various precincts are to meet on Saturday, August 23, as follows: First and Second Precincts at Pukoo courthouse, and elect ten delegates; Third and Fourth Precincts at Lanai courthouse and elect fourteen delegates; Sixth at Waikuku courthouse; Eighth and Ninth at Punaene office, and elect eleven delegates; Tenth at Hamakua native church and elect six delegates; Eleventh, Twelfth and Thirteenth at Hana courthouse and elect thirteen delegates. These fifty-nine delegates are to meet again at the same places and nominate six candidates for representation on Saturday, August 26. The result of that meeting will likely be as follows:

Kalaupapa and Pukoo (1 candidate).—Probably Joel Nazareta.
Lanai, Lanai and Honokouha (1 candidate).—Lies between A. N. Hay-seiden and Philip H. Pali.

Waikuku (1 candidate).—No name mentioned so far, but most likely A. N. Hayseiden will be urged to stand for this district.

Kahului, Honouliuli and Makawao (1 candidate).—George Copp.
Hamakua (1 candidate).—Either Henry Long or John Kaluna.

Kipahulu, Hana and Keane (1 candidate).—Lies between J. K. Josepa, E. M. Hanuana and W. P. Hala, all excellent men, popular and hard to beat.

The name for Senator is Hon. C. H. Dickey, but the admirers of W. F. Pogue and S. Kapu may force their names ahead.

On or about September 1, the District Committee will meet again in Waikuku and select the names for senators and representatives, recommended and endorsed by the various precincts.

Maui's candidate for Delegate to Congress is Hon. A. N. Kepoikai and the convention delegates from this district will be asked to push his name ahead.

The headquarters of the District Committee will likely be at the Maui hotel, from whence the chairman and his able corps of officers will pull the wires and see that the Republican party gains an overwhelming victory over its opponents at the polls next November.

The officers and party workers of the Maui District Committee of the Republican party represent the very best and ablest politicians on Maui, best in its purest sense, as corrupt politicians will have no abiding place in the folds of the Maui Republican party.

The leaders of the other parties are already feeling the progress made by the wideawake Republicans. The Democrats, being in the minority, but like good fellows, should ally themselves with good Republicans.

Hon. S. E. Kalue, the Home Rule President of the Senate, and at the same time a very intelligent and sensible Hawaiian, whose sympathies are more Republican than anything else, also feels the effects of the political battle being waged by the Republicans, and he concedes a little weakening among Home Rule followers. However, Hon. Sol Kawahara and C. L. Kookoo, resident president of the Home Rulers, have started on a crusade against the Republicans, and they hail the coming of Wilcox as timely and may help, in their opinion, to avert the coming doom of their party.

Income Tax Law passed by the Legislature of Hawaii in 1901 "was at the time of its enactment and ever since has been and now is invalid, unconstitutional and void and in violation of the provisions of the Act of Congress of 1899 known as the Organic Act of Hawaii Territory and in violation of the provisions of the Constitution of the United States and especially of the Fourteenth Amendment to said Constitution."

It goes on to say that the complainants had all been required by Treasurer Wright and Tax Assessor Pratt to make sworn returns of their income.

The prayer is for judgment that the Income Tax Law is unconstitutional and that the defendants and their servants, agents, etc., be enjoined and restrained from collecting or attempting to collect from complainants or either of them any moneys whatever upon the assessments of income tax hereinafter set forth.

One of the allegations in the complaint is to the effect that the income of the Territory is much below the expenditure, therefore any moneys paid in taxes by the complainants would be to them an irreparable loss.

The famous Hassard case came to an end today. Judge Wilcox stated that it seemed as if the plantation which claimed the land to which Hassard also had a claim, had used force against Hassard, while he himself used force against the plantation men. The plantation had then gotten Hassard and all the other claimants locked up in one way or another and then taken possession of the land. Hassard was then discharged.

Durfee was in a quandary. The German ship Gerda arrived in port yesterday with a cargo from Germany, and Durfee, in the pursuance of his duties, sealed all her hatches. He then went aft to the cabin to speak to the captain. He had only been there a few minutes when a wild-eyed cabin boy came flying in with his hair streaming back and reported that the ship's pig had eaten all the seals of the hatches.
